

SWOT ANALYSIS

OF

SEASON 2017

SEASON 2008

SWOT ANALYSIS

Strength:

1. RCB can tend to set a high target in certain matches
2. RCB is good in dismissing players

Weakness:

- RCB has scored 2nd highest runs
  - But they only tend to score more runs in particular matches
  - They are over dependent in only certain amount of batsman
  - Once those dependent batsman is dismissed the team gets to score poor target in those matches
- Although RCB scored maximum runs and dismissed more players in the data, their win rate is very low
  - RCB won only 3 matches in season 2018 and 4 in season 2008

Opportunities:

RCB can overdue their rival team giving them a hard time in their matches. The only main weakness is that they are over dependent on particular players for attacking and defending. If the overcome their weakness, then they would become the strongest team

Threats:

RCB is least in win rate compared to other teams.

Strength

- RCB can tend to set a high target in certain matches
  - RCB is in the second place of total runs compared to other teams

Weakness

- They are over dependent in only certain amount of batsman

This graph shows how the team is totally dependent. V Kholi, CH Gayle, AB de Villiers have scored huge number of total runs and gets a huge drop of runs from JH Kallis.

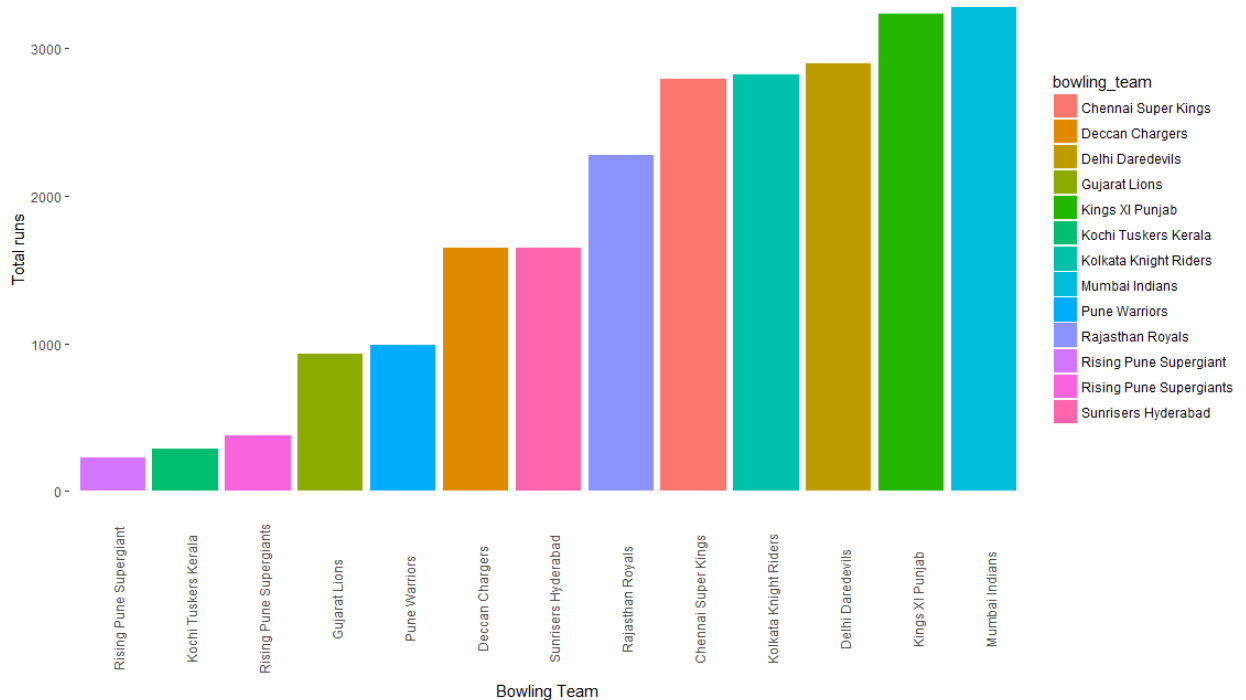

- Runs Given by the bowlers of RCB

Opportunities

- RCB can overdue their rival team giving them a hard time in their matches.

RCB's Attack

So, the total runs indicate the total run scored by RCB against the Bowling Team. Even though Mumbai Indians is a strong team RCB can score more run from them too...

RCB's Defense

- Since RCB has very low win rate, we have picked the strongest team in the data and compared RCB's Average run through attack and defense

RCB VS MI
RCB'S ATTACK

RCB'S DEFENSE

Threats

- RCB is least in win rate compared to other teams.

